WESTBURY
ARTS CENTRE

Opportunity

Volunteer Head Gardener
1–2 days per week (flexible/seasonal)

Summary

Do you have a passion for plants, people, and the arts?

Westbury Arts Centre in Milton Keynes is looking for an enthusiastic, people-focused Volunteer Head Gardener to lead our friendly team of green-fingered volunteers. 1–2 days per week (flexible/seasonal). Surrounding our beautiful 17th-century Grade II listed building, our gardens are a vital space for community well-being, wildlife, and artistic inspiration. This opportunity is about balancing people, horticulture and ecology. If you are an empathetic communicator who loves sharing knowledge, bringing people together and managing beautiful outdoor spaces, you will thrive here.

What you'll bring

- Specialist horticultural knowledge and experience in garden planning and maintenance.
- A warm, welcoming and diplomatic leadership style experienced in coordinating small groups.
- A strong commitment to sustainable, wildlife-friendly and organic gardening practices.
- An appreciation of the demands of integrating works of art and art practices into the gardens.
- Practical experience with gardening equipment and managing basic site health and safety.
- A desire to be a central part of a vibrant, creative local charity.

Interested in growing with us?

To apply or arrange an informal visit to the gardens, please send a brief email outlining your relevant experience to the administration team at admin@westburyartscentre.org.uk.

Deadline for applications

To apply please email your curriculum vitae and supporting letter by Friday 19 February 2027 to deborah.dixon@westburyartscentre.org.uk

Westbury Arts Centre is an equal opportunities organisation. We welcome volunteers from all backgrounds

